

THE SENTINEL.

DAILY, TRI-WEEKLY & WEEKLY.

RUFUS KING, EDITOR.

FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 2, 1859.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

FOR GOVERNOR.
NATHANIEL W. RANDALL, of Washburn.
FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL.
BUTLER G. ALEXANDER, of Wauwatosa.
FOR SECRETARY OF STATE.
LEWIS P. HARVEY, of Rock.
FOR TREASURER.
SAMUEL D. HASTINGS, of Trempealeau.
FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL.
JAMES H. HOWE, of Trempealeau.
FOR BANK CONTROLLER.
G. VAN STEENYCK, of Columbia.
FOR STATE FINANCE COMMISSIONER.
JAMES H. HOWE, of Trempealeau.
FOR CLERK OF SUPREME COURT.
G. S. PICKARD, of Grant.

How Col. Robinson was beaten.

The judicial editor of the Times makes the following discreet revelation as to the means used to defeat the nomination of Col. Robinson:

The editor of the Times, a well-known friend of Col. Robinson, was present at the meeting of the Republican Convention, and saw the result of the vote. He saw that the vote was cast against Robinson, and he saw that the vote was cast for the Democratic ticket. He saw that the vote was cast for the Democratic ticket, and he saw that the vote was cast for the Democratic ticket.

That such a story as the Times tells above was industriously circulated among the delegates to the Democratic State Convention, by the publishers of the Times. In the history of the Democratic Convention, it is undoubtedly true. It was a story manufactured out of whole cloth. It was a story manufactured out of whole cloth. It was a story manufactured out of whole cloth.

Our army in Utah.
HORACE GREELY writes from Camp Floyd to the Times an interesting letter on "Our Army in Utah." It appears that Brigham Young made $500,000 clear profit on lumber furnished the American army to construct its comfortable quarters at Camp Floyd.

Whether truly or falsely, this army probably without an individual exception, undoubtedly believe the Mormons as good as traitors to the United States. The army is undoubtedly true. It is undoubtedly true. It is undoubtedly true.

Twenty-two cents per pound is paid for the transportation of all provisions, munitions, etc., from Leavenworth to Washington. The contractors were allowed this for transporting this year's supply of flour. It is a little dexterous management at Washington.

The sale of mules and wagons.
Pursuant to a recent order from Washington, the Assistant Quartermaster General has now selling by auction some two thousand mules and wagons. The order is a recent one, and the sale is a recent one. The sale is a recent one, and the sale is a recent one.

The transportation of corn.
There has recently been received from the United States a net cost, including transportation, of $340,000, or $11 per bushel. No regulation was ever made in this respect. The regulation was never made. The regulation was never made.

The contractors who are obliged to run their stages weekly because of their pre-emptive business, are obliged to keep their stock and pay their men whether they work or play, that they cannot carry the mail over the route so cheaply as they can every week. For instance: A mail from the States now often consists of twelve to sixteen heavy sacks (most of them filled with franked documents) and some hundred pounds. Double this, and no six mules would draw it at the requisite pace, and no baggage wagon could carry it.

THE GRAND MILITARY FETE AT PARIS.

Napoleon's Entry at the Head of the Army of Italy.

The triumphal entry of Napoleon III. at Paris on the 14th ult. was probably one of the grandest military spectacles ever witnessed on earth. The Emperor, accompanied by the French Emperor, and the most illustrious monarchs of the continent, entered the city at the head of the Army of Italy.

Most of the balconies and shops all along the boulevards were packed with people. The Emperor, accompanied by the French Emperor, and the most illustrious monarchs of the continent, entered the city at the head of the Army of Italy.

At a very early hour, the Emperor, accompanied by the French Emperor, and the most illustrious monarchs of the continent, entered the city at the head of the Army of Italy.

From the windows of the Hotel de Ville, the Emperor, accompanied by the French Emperor, and the most illustrious monarchs of the continent, entered the city at the head of the Army of Italy.
